

30 Minute Consultation 20 Minute Photography Session 1 Exceptional Image

Headshots can communicate so many different things depending on your line of work. Maybe you're a small business owner of a service company and need to communicate friendly and warm. Maybe you're a creative and want a more artsy and moody headshot or maybe you're a corporate type and need to communicate confidence and power. Whatever the case may be, your headshot should communicate the part of your personality that best represents your work. My mission is to provide you with a professional photograph that represents your authentic and best self. I specialize in photographing people who don't like having their picture taken or may be uncomfortable in front of the camera.

Consultation

Your in-person consultation is just as important as your session. We will discuss your needs and prepare you for what to expect. We will talk about what you would like to communicate with your headshot, design the mood and look, discuss wardrobe*, makeup and hair. More importantly, we will talk about any concerns you may have about having your photograph taken.

The Session

Since all the details are discussed at your consultation, your session should go smoothly and quickly. With one background and outfit, we will focus on just a couple of poses and take them from all angles to discover your best side.

Product Delivery

You will get to select one high resolution digital file for professional use.** You will be provided with an online gallery with five fully edited, retouched photographs from which to choose.
